Anti-Tito Reds Will Get Help Moscow States

Soviet Radio Says Underground To Receive Full Party Support

LONDON, Sept. 2 (INS).—Moscow radio said tonight that an anti-Tito underground schooled "in the art of conspiracy" is already active in factories and villages throughout Yugoslavia.

In Paris, Dr. Kirtley Mather, Harvard University geologist, told International News Service that he talked to Marshal Tito recently during a tour of Yugoslavia and that Tito "displays no fear" in the war of battle with Moscow and hints that he is setting up an anti-Communist organization.

NOT EXPECTING WAR

Tito was represented as preparing for a possible Russian attack even though Mather quoted him as saying, "I do not expect the war of nerves will result in a war of bullets."

Moscow radio's latest propaganda barrage against Tito, quoted an article in the Communist publication named "For Lasting Peace and Democracy."

The broadcast said that members of the purported anti-Tito underground have "learned the art of conspiracy and know how to avoid detection," and it added:

"The Communists in Yugoslavia are reforming their own Communist party which remains faithful to proletarian internationalism."

"In the battle to bring Yugoslavia back into the camp of socialism and democracy they will receive the full support of all brotherly Communist parties."

JOINS IN ATTACK

The Prague radio joined the anti-Tito word by quoting a newspaper belonging to Yugoslav Communist emigres in Sofia. It said the "new Yugoslav Communist party" will organize all Yugoslav Communists abroad for what it termed "the coming fight against Tito traitors and tools of imperialism."

The Albanian newspaper Zeri Popullit said that Albanians in the Kosovo district in southwestern Yugoslavia are actively resisting with arms, what it called "large-scale oppression and assassination by the Tito clique."

But a check with American diplomatic officials in Belgrade said that "all is quiet" in Yugoslavia. They added they had not heard of any reported fighting in the Kosovo area.

New Fire-Fighting Body Planned for Saanichton

A new volunteer fire department for Saanichton will probably be organized in the near future, according to reports from citizens and municipal officials in the area.

Latest word comes from J. Wood, president of the Saanichton Community Club which went into a huddle with Saanichton Fire Chief Joseph Law and emerged with his promise to "strongly recommend" the new fire fighting body in his forthcoming report to the Saanichton Council.

OVER DIFFICULTIES

The report and the bid for a volunteer department have arisen from recent "difficulties" experienced by the Saanichton fire department in coping with fires over the wide area it must cover, and "inefficiency" charges from Ward Six ratepayers.

If formed, the volunteer force would be on call for an area extending in a two-mile radius from Saanichton Centre.

The volunteer fire fighters would be given training at No. 1 Fire Hall, Saanichton, the report, from the Saanichton Community Club states. Next meeting of the Community Club will be held September 8 at 8 p.m., it is announced.

No mention has been made to this date concerning equipment for the proposed volunteer brigade.

Funeral Tuesday

SENATOR IAN MACKENZIE
 Who died yesterday at Banff, will be buried Tuesday afternoon in Vancouver. Services will be conducted in the Central Presbyterian Church at 2 o'clock. Honorary pallbearers will include Premier Byron Johnson, Federal Fisheries Minister R. W. Mayhew, Attorney-General Gordon Wismer of British Columbia and Senators J. H. King, J. W. Parris and S. S. McKen of Vancouver. See stories on Page 2.

Customs Port Stays Closed

VANCOUVER, Sept. 2 (CP).—The customs port on the Pacific Highway will remain closed to all traffic but buses during the holiday week-end, Tom Reid, Liberal Member of Parliament for New Westminster, said today.

"United States customs officials have refused to co-operate," he said. The arrangement is a compromise reached at a customs conference held this week.

The Pacific Highway port is normally closed to general traffic on week-ends.

No By-Election Foreseen For School Board Posts

There were indications yesterday that no by-election would be called to fill the vacancy on the Greater Victoria School Board called by the resignation this week of M. P. Paine, former Saanichton representative.

In view of the fact that municipal elections are slated for the first week in December, when trustees normally come up for re-election, it is believed that neither Saanichton Council nor the school board will go to the expense of a by-election in the less than four months remaining.

If a by-election is called, it likely could not be held for at least a month.

TWO SEATS VACANT

Following the death earlier this year of Trustee Isla Tuck, Victoria representative, Mr. Paine's resignation leaves two seats vacant on the nine-man school board.

Mr. Paine was forced to resign when it was discovered that he had disqualified himself through a technicality of the Public Schools Act. He explained that the board had been buying materials from Island Enterprises and B.C. Roofers and Agencies, of which he is a partner.

Mr. Paine said he was unaware until recently that the board had made small purchases from the two companies, which are not incorporated.

Following his resignation Mr. Paine stated that he would seek re-election to the board in December.

Support Grows for Traffic Safety Campaign

After a slow start the current Greater Victoria Traffic and Safety Council campaign aimed at gaining city a better reputation for driving standards began to attract more support from motorists. Above, Billy and Sharon MacDonald watch as their father L. F. MacDonald buys a $1 safety council membership and car sticker from Service Station Manager A. C. Harvey. Service station men reported safety sticker sales are beginning to boom.

Four Safe Following Sea Ordeal

CAMPBELL RIVER, Sept. 2.—A C. Lipp, secretary of Campbell River School District, No. 72, Mrs. Lipp and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dione of Quadra Island had a narrow escape from drowning when Mr. Dione's motor boat, while en route to the ferry, was blown into the water by a large wave.

The vessel was freighted with an electric pump, lumber, and other materials from Campbell River to the site of a new school at Burge Narrows on the west side of Head Island.

SPRANG LEAK

All hands took turns at a small pump when the motor suddenly sprang a leak and commenced to fill with water in the turbulent inlet.

Mrs. Dione, who cannot swim, fell overboard while making her way to the stern of the boat. Mr. and Mrs. Lipp immediately jumped overboard, fully clothed, and managed to drag Mrs. Dione aboard after a struggle of 20 minutes in the strong tide.

PUMP NEGLECTED

She was unconscious when placed on the deck. Artificial respiration was applied. In the meantime the pump was neglected, and the level of the water rose rapidly. All four persons jumped in a skiff at the stern when the motor showed signs of foundering.

Oars were lost in the confusion, but by paddling with their hands and a piece of board, they managed to reach Rebecca Spit on the east side of Drew Harbor, Quadra Island.

GET ASSISTANCE

Mr. and Mrs. Lipp struggled through the brush to Drew Harbor, where they arrived exhausted with their clothes almost torn to ribbons. They obtained assistance from several fishermen, and returned to remove freight from the half-submerged vessel, which had drifted ashore.

See Most Danger In Next Six Years

IF WAR COMES

If Russia should decide to precipitate a world war, when would the Soviets be apt to strike? Kingsbury Smith, European general manager of International News Service, tells in the following article about the strategic calculations of Western diplomatic and military leaders on this subject. This is the first of a series of six articles on "If War Comes."

By KINGSBURY SMITH
 PARIS, Sept. 2 (INS).—Western defence strategists reportedly fear that the first five years of the 1950's will hold the greatest danger of a possible Russian attack against the Atlantic Pact nations.

The Soviets, they believe, are most apt to strike during that period if the Kremlin decides on war to prevent restoration of the balance of military power in the West.

MOST CRITICAL

Most critical part of the period is seen likely to be between 1952 and 1955.

This calculation is said to be based on the possibility that Russia may be able to solve the secret of producing atom bombs sometime during those three years.

Another important factor is the expectation that Western Europe cannot be sufficiently rearmaged before 1955 to hold for any length of time the Rhine, the Elbe or any other similar natural defence barrier against the Red Army.

General Omar Bradley, chairman of the United States joint chiefs of staff, told Congress recently that France probably could not be made safe from invasion for five to ten years.

Safety Council members report women drivers are more anxious to support the safety campaign than male motorists. Mrs. H. S. Jones, above, buying a membership card from her son, Service Station Attendant Garth Jones, expressed concern for the safety of children on the city's streets.

Fighter Plane Strafes Docked Fishing Vessel

NO MAN'S LAND, Mass., Sept. 2 (AP).—The crew of a fishing boat reported today their docked vessel was strafed by a fighter plane. Several hours later a Connecticut Air National Guard spokesman said three figures sitting on the wharf, waving their arms. Then the planes returned to their base, he added.

HAD PERMISSION

Jensen said the 103rd had the navy's permission to use the island area.

A navy spokesman said the island is for the exclusive use of the navy, and that there is a $500 fine against anyone using the wharf.

The incident was reported by the Shaker's captain-owner Lee Broderick, 40; Ellis Henry, 25, and Louis Oliveira, 22, all of New Bedford.

The crew members, who were on the wharf cutting up sharks, said 20 shells pierced the boat and many others splattered about them on the landing.

Major Cal Jensen, intelligence officer for the 103rd Fighter Squadron at Grouton, Conn., said an inspection plane reported all clear when it flew over the range ten minutes before the fighters.

SAFE AFTER 1955

However, Atlantic Pact military strategists generally seem to think that after 1955 the rearmament of Western Europe will be, or should be, so far advanced that the Kremlin would consider the risk of defeat too great to start a war with the West.

Big B.C. Fire Sweeps Timber

HARRISON HOT SPRINGS, B.C., Sept. 2 (CP).—A raging forest fire in the Harrison Lake area 80 miles east of Vancouver, tonight threatened more than 10,000,000 feet of felled and bucked timber.

The blaze, at the Canadian Forest Products, Harrison Mills operation, has covered six acres and burned an estimated 300,000 feet of timber. It is believed to have been started by sparks from blasting operations. Forestry officials say 125 men are battling flames.

May Agree to End Use of Bus Passes

Committee Also Considering Curtailment of Some Routes

As bargaining points in its fight with the transit companies to hold the general fare structure at its present level, the Greater Victoria Transportation Committee may agree to the discontinuance of the weekly pass and a curtailment of non-profitable routes, it was learned yesterday.

Representatives of the B.C. Electric Railway Co. and the Vancouver Island Coach Lines were reported to have told a private meeting of the committee that the companies suffered a $225,704 loss during a six-month period prior to March 1, 1949.

Although the companies did not mention what increases in the fare structure they would seek to make up losses claimed, it has been suggested that they might ask for a straight ten-cent fare.

COULD MEET DEMAND

In view of these facts some of the committee feel that it is in the best interests of the majority of the travelling public that the weekly pass should be disposed of. Together with a curtailment of certain non-profitable routes, the losses could be sufficiently cut down to meet the demand without any further changes in the fare structure, Alderman Harold Dignon, committee chairman, declared yesterday.

He said the operations statement submitted by the companies required further study. He added that should it be found that an accurate picture of the financial situation has been presented, the situation would be that case merit relief in some material way.

"The question then is what sources should be explored to find ways and means to take up these losses or at least a major portion of them," he observed. "It is suggested that these losses could be met by curtailing mileage traveled in giving transportation, and the elimination of the weekly pass."

PASSES "ABUSED"

Alderman Dignon said that investigation "shows conclusively" that bus patrons have abused the use of the weekly pass "to such an extent that riders, in many cases, are riding the buses at an average cost of about four cents per ride."

"This situation is not only causing a great part of the loss but works a hardship upon the rider who pays cash or buys tickets, which is a most inequitable condition," he declared. "It is therefore obvious that if the weekly pass remains, fares must of necessity be increased."

Present rate in Greater Victoria is four tickets for 30 cents. Before the interim increase last October it was four for 25 cents.

Early Fall Of Canton Predicted

HONGKONG, Sept. 2 (Reuters).—Hongkong observers predicted today that Canton, Chinese Government emergency capital since the capture of Nanking early in the year, would fall to victorious Communist armies within two weeks.

But in Canton itself, Nationalist military sources thought they could hold the city into October. Scale of evacuation from Canton has slackened since Government administrative offices transferred to Chungking, wartime capital in West China.

The Communist armies under Gen. Lin Pi-An and Gen. Liu Po-Cheng, which drove down from the Yangtze River, are reported regrouping in South Kiangsi and Hunan for the final offensive.

Chinese reports tonight said the heaviest fighting was at a town ten miles from the strategic North-South Kiangtung railroad and 180 miles north of Canton.

Financial Aid Program Drafted at Talks in U.S.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 2 (AP).—British, American and Canadian officials ended their preliminary fact-finding conference today. They were reported to have agreed on suggesting six steps for easing Britain's financial crisis.

The big question of how Britain is to earn enough dollars to meet expenses was left unanswered as the negotiators adjourned their week-long discussions.

This critical problem will be handed to the top cabinet officers of the three governments who meet here Wednesday.

Officials acknowledge they are still pessimistic about the chances that the coming top level meeting will succeed in finding a way to reverse Britain's economic slump in the near future.

It was learned that these six main points will be considered as "stopgap measures" when the talks begin September 7:

CUT BRITISH BUYING

1. A new reduction in British buying from the United States in favor of purchases from non-dollar areas offering "alternative sources" of supply.

2. Simplifying and streamlining American customs regulations to make it easier for British exporters to get their goods into the United States.

3. Relaxing the terms of the 1946 British Loan Agreement to allow Britain to discriminate during the financial emergency against American goods which must be paid for in scarce dollars.

4. An "Intergovernmental" drive by the British Government to advertise its wares in the United States as a means of attracting new customers.

5. Spending up American Government purchases of such strategic materials as rubber and tin.

6. More American loans to, and purchases from, Southeast Asian members of the Commonwealth.

Plane Crash In Alaska Fatal to Seven

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, Sept. 3 (AP).—An Alaska air depot C-47 plane crashed into an inlet near Pigeon Island today, killing all seven crew members.

Tonight a United States army crash boat was at the scene, some 14 miles south and west of here, trying to find the bodies.

A rescue float plane earlier sat down near the wreckage and the pilot brought back some portions of the plane, from which identification was made. The plane had been on a routine training flight and had been in the air 45 minutes when it crashed.

Girl Drowns After Fall From Wharf at Yubou

Nine-year-old Patricia McGregor sat on her bicycle and looked over the edge of Yat Alley wharf at Yubou.

"The water looks nice," she told her friends, Eileen Ledingham and Margaret McKinnon, who had cycled to the wharf with her at 2:15 Thursday evening. "I'd like to go for a swim."

Immediately after she spoke, she overbalanced, fell 25 feet to a log "apron," rolled over and drowned in 30 feet of water.

DEATH ACCIDENTAL

Coroner A. E. Green pronounced death accidental after an enquiry at Duncan yesterday afternoon.

Eileen Ledingham said Patricia was sitting on her bicycle with one foot on the wharf and one on a pedal, leaning over the lake water. She fell and landed on her back across the log apron, with her head toward the wharf, apparently knocked unconscious.

Eileen ran from the wharf to the beach and swam out to the place where her friend fell, but when she reached there Patricia had disappeared.

Meanwhile, Margaret McKinnon ran to call for help. Const. William Aylward, B.C. Police, went out in a rowing boat with William Pinckard and Eld Robertson.

Using a portable spotlight, they found the body on the bottom in 30 feet of water and recovered it at 10:45 p.m. with a hastily-made grappling hook.

Dr. C. W. Mewborn found life extinct. Patricia was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. McGregor, Yubou. Mr. McGregor is a B.C. Forest Products millworker.

Indian Leader To Visit Coast

VANCOUVER, Sept. 2 (AP).—Mayor Charles Thompson said today Prime Minister Pandit Nehru of India will visit the city in November.

The Indian leader plans to be here November 2, when a reception will be held in his honor by Hon. S. K. Kirpalani, Indian High Commissioner to Canada.

C.M.H.C. Says Ottawa May Take Greater Responsibility for Housing

OTTAWA, Sept. 2 (CP)—Canada's critical housing shortage may cause the Federal Government to take a greater share of housing responsibility which normally belongs to the provinces, the Central Mortgage and Housing Corporation said today.

Never before has the housing situation been as bad as it is now, the corporation said in a brief prepared for the Royal Commission on Arts and Science Development.

INFLUENCED BY HOME
It gave its views on housing because of that factor's impact on cultural development. A Canadian was influenced, said the corporation, by the sense of satisfaction or discouragement from the character of the house in which he lives and the security which it affords.

More than that, the design of a house was a physical expression of the Canadian way of life. Society attempted to control nature to form its own environment. This environment in turn shaped society and molded the lives of individuals.

The corporation noted that the growth of communities in Canada. Documentary films to dramatize housing conditions should be made. These films could be used to demonstrate the role of community organizations in home and planning improvement.

Life President
BANFF, Alta., Sept. 2 (CP)—Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent tonight was named an honorary life president of the Canadian Bar Association. The honor, accorded to an outstanding Canadian only twice before in the history of the organization, was conferred on the Prime Minister at the annual dinner of the organization.

"How full of hope we are now because we know that over the Atlantic ocean we have some friends," he said. "We are not so sure we have such friends on the far east of Europe."

Other sectional meetings today dealt with problems faced by barristers on questions of commercial and insurance law.

Delegates attending the sectional meeting on industrial relations said a strike in an essential public or commercial service to "intimately and immediately affects basic public welfare, that any interruption of the services would disrupt public life and endanger health or other phases of public welfare."

They proposed that such strikes be outlawed. However, they stressed that employees in such services should not be deprived of the right to strike without "a compensatory provision of satisfactory means of securing proper remuneration and adequate working and social conditions."

Warm greetings from the French bench and bar were brought to the convention by Marc Andreu Gouin, a member of the council of the Order of Advocates of the Court of Paris.

Mr. Gouin sketched problems facing the French nation, and those which it had overcome.

Will Examine Proposal to Bar Strikes in Essential Services

BANFF, Alta., Sept. 2 (CP)—The Canadian Bar Association at its final session tomorrow will consider a proposal to prohibit strikes in essential public and commercial services.

The proposal, recommending substitution of binding arbitration awards in place of the right to strike, is one of a series of resolutions presented to a sectional meeting of the C.B.A. today. All were originated by the Manitoba branch of the C.B.A.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent, who arrived yesterday to participate in C.B.A. deliberations as a private member of the association, received a warm ovation when he appeared today. It marks the 25th straight appearance of the former president of the C.B.A. at meetings of the organization.

Warm greetings from the French bench and bar were brought to the convention by Marc Andreu Gouin, a member of the council of the Order of Advocates of the Court of Paris.

Mr. Gouin sketched problems facing the French nation, and those which it had overcome.

Admit Failure In Battling Crime Comics

OTTAWA, Sept. 2 (CP)—Parents and teachers' representatives today admitted they are failing in the battle to eliminate crime comics.

Officials of the Canadian Home and School Federation urged before the Royal Commission on Arts and Science Development that the Criminal Code be amended to make publication of the "lurid and lewd" crime comics illegal and punishable by two years' imprisonment.

Main factor in the federation's inability to combat the distribution and consumption of the "insidious" books is the high cost of better books, said Dr. W. P. Percival of Quebec, federation president.

A child could get a crime comic depicting degradation for five or ten cents.

Russia Most Likely to Strike In First Five Years of 1950's

By that time, it is hoped that Western Europe will no longer be wide open to Russian attack, as it has been for the past three years and is today.

Some Western defence planners think the temptation for Russia to attack will be the greatest when the rearmament of Western Europe reaches the halfway mark. They believe that even at that point it would still be possible for the Soviet armies to sweep swiftly across the continent.

A quick invasion of countries like France might then set Russia vast quantities of new military equipment, armament factories, newly developed air bases and supplies of all kinds.

French political leaders also think the danger of a Soviet attack would become very great indeed if the Atlantic Pact powers should decide to accept the new West German state into their alliance, and should approve the rearmament of Western Germany.

There are some Western military leaders who believe the question of rearming West Germany will have to be seriously considered as the Atlantic Pact defence plans progress.

LINE ON ELBE
Highly authoritative French sources told International News Service that these plans now definitely envisage the Elbe rather than the Rhine as the first line of the Atlantic Pact allies' defence in Western Europe, at least as long as Germany remains split between Russia and the West.

Holding the Elbe, it was pointed out, is essential to protect the industries and resources of the Ruhr. Not only is this industrial heart of Germany a vitally important "workshop" for Western Europe, but its acquisition by Soviet forces would greatly strengthen Russia's war potential.

France's political leaders also feel that it is most important psychologically for the French nation to have the first line of Western defence further east than the Rhine.

There has been some talk among the Western defence planners of stationing on the Rhine or the Elbe ten divisions composed of American, British and Canadian troops, with equipment for an additional ten divisions. This would enable the manpower for the latter to be rushed to the line quickly if it appeared that Russia was preparing to attack.

MIGHT CHECK PUSH
It is thought that this force, plus what the French, Belgians and Dutch could contribute, might be able to check a sudden Soviet offensive long enough to enable an American tactical air force to be flown across the Atlantic.

If a Soviet offensive could be held in check that long, the Western military experts think the American and British tactical air forces might possibly be able to break up the attack by plastering Russian troop concentrations, providing, of course, the Western flyers gained control of the air.

Now how might break out in Europe if Russia should decide to present itself as a military confederate? It is a question of vital interest to everyone today. What Western European political and military leaders privately think about these questions is outlined in the final of this series of six articles.

Claims Tokio Rose Not U.S. Citizen

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 2 (INS)—The defence in the Tokio Rose treason trial claimed today that accused Mrs. Iva Toguri d'Aquino is a Portuguese citizen and therefore should not be tried for treason against the United States.

Introduced into evidence was an affidavit from J. A. Abranches, pilot, veteran Portuguese consul in Tokio, who asserted that under his country's civil law Iva became a Portuguese citizen through her 1945 marriage to Felipe d'Aquino.

Records of the marriage were also placed in evidence.

U.S. Considers Canadian Plane

TORONTO, Sept. 2 (Saturday) (CP)—The Globe and Mail says today a Canadian-designed light plane may soon go into production for the United States Air Force.

A newspaper story by Aviation Editor James Hornick says the engine is the Orenda, designed by Avro Canada Ltd., and the aircraft is the Beaver, a single-engine, six-passenger utility transport built by the De Havilland Aircraft of Canada Ltd.

The two products are said to be subject of preliminary negotiations at high Government levels.

The story says Winnett Boyd, chief designer and assistant chief engineer of Avro Canada Ltd., is in California, where he has been discussing the Orenda engine with United States officials. It is reported he was sent there under orders of the Department of National Defence.

That decided it. They turned back to Halifax.

Now all he wants, says Carlin, is a sturdier tank. Then he'll be on his way again.

His idea is to make a round-the-world trip by land and sea with the former army vehicle.

The first attempt ended when their weird-looking craft broke down whether to return to port or the other 300 miles out of New York in a tank shipped away. Carlin went overboard. They were picked up by a side to an attempt to recover, passing freighters and a tugboat to the tank but choppy seas hurried it. The tank and knocked out the stabilizer.

Canadian Entrant Still Hoping To Fly in Big Cleveland Race

CLEVELAND, Sept. 2 (CP)—An aviator's invasion today turned this city into an airport annex in anticipation of the national air race three-day program.

A B-36 type propeller turned slowly at a downtown intersection, model planes and flying gear filled store windows, and hotel guests brushed past bright exhibits of aircraft engines and equipment. Grease-spotted jackets and coveralls topped by big-billed caps were as common as ten-gallon hats in Texas.

But the sure mark of an aviation assembly was the number of organization meetings.

CANADIAN DELEGATION
A four-man delegation from the Royal Canadian Flying Clubs Association is attending the Federation Aeronautique Internationale.

Perhaps the quietest spot was the huge municipal airport, where about three dozen crews puttered and polished in preparation for the start of competition tomorrow.

Theatre Group Names Officers

VANCOUVER, Sept. 2 (CP)—John A. Putt, a department store executive, today was named president of the Vancouver Civic Theatre Society, which has taken over operation of the Theatre Under the Stars from the Vancouver Parks Board.

Honorary president is Mayor Charles Thompson, and Vice-president, Elmore Meredith, School Board Trustee.

The entire setup of the outdoor theatre will be examined by city council before any agreement is made to turn over assets of the organization to the society.

Senator Ian Mackenzie Dies on Visit to Banff

BANFF, Alta., Sept. 2 (CP)—Senator Ian Alister Mackenzie, one of Canada's better-known political figures, died here today. He was 50.

Senator Mackenzie had been suffering since Monday from a severe heart seizure. He was stricken while holidaying with his wife at Sunshine Lodge, 14 miles west of here.

Senator Mackenzie's death ended a distinguished career as a scholar, lawyer, and soldier. He represented British Columbia in the Senate, to which he was summoned January 19, 1948.

Son of poor parents, he was born in the Parish of Assynt, Sutherland, in 1890, and early displayed scholastic brilliance which was to see him graduate with honors from Edinburgh University in 1914.

The tall Scot came to Canada in 1915 and headed for Vancouver but with the outbreak of the Great War he was commissioned in the 72nd Battalion. He finished the war as a staff captain after being under fire at Ypres, Kemmel, Vimy Ridge and the Somme.

His political career began in 1920, when he was elected to the British Columbia Legislature with a record vote.

PROVINCIAL SECRETARY
Senator Mackenzie became Provincial Secretary of British Columbia in 1928. Former Prime Minister Mackenzie King called him to Ottawa in 1930 to become Minister of Immigration and Colonization.

He won the Vancouver Centre seat in the Federal election of 1930. With the return to power of the Liberal Government in 1935, he was appointed Defence Minister by Mr. King, and in that post reorganized the militia and obtained increasing budgets for military purposes.

On relinquishing the defence portfolio in 1939 he became Minister of Health and Welfare.

With the creation of the Department of Veterans' Affairs in October, 1944, he undertook one of the major jobs in the Cabinet, head of a staff of more than 20,000 persons.

He was an authority on parliamentary law and for some years was Mr. King's House leader when the Prime Minister was absent. He was elevated to the Privy Council in 1947.

Three Killed At Crossing

NEW LISKEARD, Ont., Sept. 2 (CP)—Three youths were killed and five others critically injured early today in a level crossing automobile-train collision at Thornhill, about 15 miles from this Northern Ontario centre.

Police said the accident occurred when an Ontario Northern Railway train plowed into the car.

Police Holding Theft Suspects

SWIFT CURRENT, Sask., Sept. 2 (CP)—Police said tonight they were awaiting the arrival of a police escort from Vancouver to take back to the Coast city a man and woman believed involved in a $3,000 jewelry theft.

The pair were picked up here last night by two constables who recognized the couple, driving a green automobile, from a police bulletin description. Police did not reveal the identity of the pair being held.

A Victoria woman told Vancouver police that a man and woman she had met at a race track last Saturday gave her a "Mickey Finn" and apparently stole her jewelry while she was "out."

Tokio Death Toll 123 From Typhoon

TOKIO, Sept. 2 (Saturday) (CP)—The flood threat to Tokio subsided today as national police piled the casualty toll from Wednesday's typhoon at 123 dead, 51 missing and 419 injured.

Government officials said rivers north of Tokio dropped during the night. Damage from typhoon and flood was high in Tokio.

Good Omen Seen In Gigantic Turtle

SEOUL, Korea, Sept. 2 (AP)—A gigantic sea turtle, possibly the largest ever caught, gave this Communist-ruled republic an upsurge of spirits today.

The turtle has spirits of its own, too, having drowned without a struggle three crooks of whom offered by the fishermen, who snared it off the southern tip of Korea a few days ago.

"It's an omen," President Syngman Rhee enthusiastically told a press conference tonight.

"It means prosperity for the nation. The turtle is our symbol of longevity and prosperity."

Higher Price of Eggs, Pork Sends Living Cost to Peak

OTTAWA, Sept. 2 (CP)—Higher price of eggs and pork products during July sent Canada's cost-of-living index to a new high of 162.8, indicating an over-all increase of 61.5 per cent since August, 1939.

This latest figure by the Bureau of Statistics showed where the index, based on 1939 equals 100, stood at August 1. On July 2 it was 162.1.

The jump of seven-tenths of a point was a tapering-off from the leap of 1.6 points the previous month, when food prices resulted in the largest increases in a year.

The Statistics Bureau said the increases in egg and pork prices were mainly responsible for the increase in the food index from 207.2 to 209.2.

Other groups which go to make up the index showed little change.

The clothing index dropped one-tenth of a point to 18.2.

Four Per Cent Drop Reported In Canada's Shipments Abroad

OTTAWA, Sept. 2 (CP)—A sharp drop in exports to all drop in exports to the United States during July resulted in a 4 per cent over-all decrease in Canada's domestic shipments abroad compared with July last year.

The Bureau of Statistics today reported that the Dominion's exports south of the border slipped to a value of $104,391,000 during the month from $118,530,000—a drop of 12.3 per cent.

The decrease, along with smaller exports to Latin American and continental countries, was somewhat offset by higher shipments to the United Kingdom and other Commonwealth lands.

Total July exports of $241,300,000—compared with $250,900,000 in July of last year.

Meanwhile exports to the United Kingdom continued to advance. In July they totaled $70,500,000 against $56,340,000 a year ago. This advance failed to make up for declines earlier in the year, however, and the seven-month total for shipments to the United Kingdom was $406,158,000—up from $395,500,000 for the similar period of 1948.

Police Holding Theft Suspects

SWIFT CURRENT, Sask., Sept. 2 (CP)—Police said tonight they were awaiting the arrival of a police escort from Vancouver to take back to the Coast city a man and woman believed involved in a $3,000 jewelry theft.

The pair were picked up here last night by two constables who recognized the couple, driving a green automobile, from a police bulletin description. Police did not reveal the identity of the pair being held.

A Victoria woman told Vancouver police that a man and woman she had met at a race track last Saturday gave her a "Mickey Finn" and apparently stole her jewelry while she was "out."

Tokio Death Toll 123 From Typhoon

TOKIO, Sept. 2 (Saturday) (CP)—The flood threat to Tokio subsided today as national police piled the casualty toll from Wednesday's typhoon at 123 dead, 51 missing and 419 injured.

Government officials said rivers north of Tokio dropped during the night. Damage from typhoon and flood was high in Tokio.

Good Omen Seen In Gigantic Turtle

SEOUL, Korea, Sept. 2 (AP)—A gigantic sea turtle, possibly the largest ever caught, gave this Communist-ruled republic an upsurge of spirits today.

The turtle has spirits of its own, too, having drowned without a struggle three crooks of whom offered by the fishermen, who snared it off the southern tip of Korea a few days ago.

"It's an omen," President Syngman Rhee enthusiastically told a press conference tonight.

"It means prosperity for the nation. The turtle is our symbol of longevity and prosperity."

New Telephone Equipment Coming to Relieve Shortage

Thousands of Victorians are still without telephones in their homes.

B.C. Telephone officials announced recently that to help remedy the situation approximately 2,000 lines of additional automatic equipment would be installed in the Empire, Garden and Beacon units of the Blanshard Street central office. But the new installations will still leave many people waiting.

Company officials also reported that more of the hard-to-get equipment was on order for further expansion.

The equipment will eventually provide facilities for connection to approximately 2,500 new telephones.

They added that owing to the "uncertain supply" conditions they cannot say definitely when some of the equipment mentioned will be available for service.

Asked the reason for this shortage of equipment, when other industries seem to be catching up with the demand, company officials blamed their source of supply and the 32 per cent increase in British Columbia's population since 1941.

They said nearly every telephone company in North America has been faced with shortages of equipment since 1941. The situation eased somewhat after the war when factories started to produce commercially again. However, they are still not able to meet the ever-growing demand for telephone equipment.

The B.C. Telephone Co. is spending more than $1,000,000 on telephone projects now under way and on orders already placed.

R.N.W.M.P.V. MEETING

G. E. Blake, Dominion secretary-treasurer of the Royal North West Mounted Police Veterans' Association, Calgary, Alta., will attend a special meeting of the Victoria division of the association, 8 p.m. Wednesday, September 7, at the Army, Navy and Air Force Veterans' clubrooms.

CLOSED MONDAY

The Victoria Public Library will be closed all day Monday in observance of Labor Day.

TO INSTALL OFFICERS

The annual installation banquet of the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held Wednesday night at the Club Stroz, starting at 6:30, reports Secretary Clyde Elford.

Highlight of the party will be installation of president, Joseph Manion, and vice-president, Don Smith. The ceremony will be conducted by an alderman representing Mayor Percy E. George. Among guests expected at the banquet will be Frank Goldsmith, recently appointed president of the British Columbia Branch of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, from North Vancouver.

PERMIT ISSUED

A permit was issued yesterday by the city building inspector to J. M. Wood, authorizing construction of a $15,000 garage workshop and showroom at 977 Yates Street.

Plans call for construction of a one-story reinforced concrete building with a frontage of 30 feet and a depth of 130 feet. Contractor is E. H. Loney.

CALL FOR TENDERS

The Provincial Public Works Department yesterday called for tenders on building the sub-structure for Pelly Bridge No. 1 on the Loughheed Highway at Pitt Meadows.

Tenders must be in the office of Works Minister E. C. Carson by noon Tuesday.

VISITING HOURS

Effective today, public visiting hours at the Dominion Astrophysical Observatory, Little Saanich Mountain, are from 8 to 10 p.m. It was announced yesterday by Director J. A. Pearce.

BEACH FIRE

Saanich fire department No. 2 hall extinguished a fire on the beach on Telegraph Bay Road about noon yesterday.

Firemen said a large pile of logs was burning. They were out about two hours.

PLAN "MUM" SHOW

Annual "early" show of the Oak Bay Amateur Chrysanthemum Society will be held during afternoons and evenings of September 16 and 17, reports Fred Richardson, president of the organization.

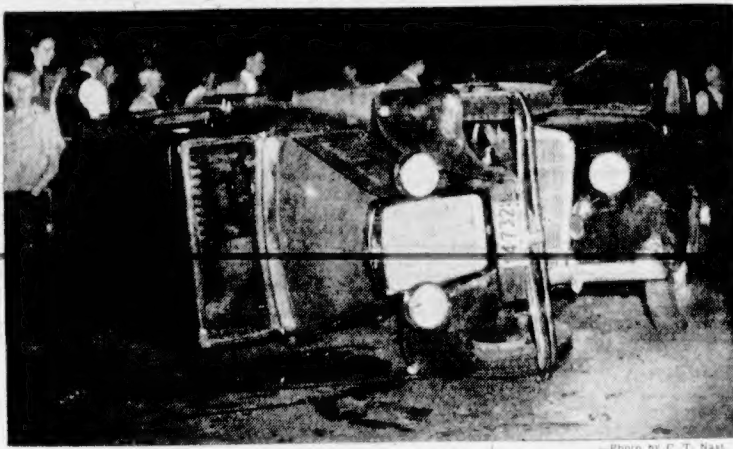

To be staged at the Oak Bay High School, the show will be open between 2 and 10 p.m. of the two-day exhibition. A wide variety of mums in so far as size and color is concerned is promised. The show will be sponsored by the Oak Bay Kiwanis Club. Bunches of flowers will be presented as prizes in a ticket-drawing contest.

"NATURAL CAUSES"

Mrs. Arthur Derbyshire, 63, 131 Ladysmith Street, died of natural causes Thursday afternoon in the office of Dr. James L. Magrath, coroner E. C. Hart said yesterday after holding an inquiry.

The elderly woman had just had a tooth pulled when she suddenly

Five Escape Injury in Three-Car Smash-Up

Above photo was taken within few minutes of three-car collision at intersection of Hillside Avenue and Blackwood Street at 9:25 p.m. yesterday. No one was seriously injured and total damage was only $200. According to Constable Donald Buie, car at left, driven by Mitchell received honorable mention. Judges were W. J. Pynn, J. F. Ritz, A. Gray and B. G. Harrington.

MORE VEHICLES

Number of motor vehicles in British Columbia up to the end of July was 203,911, an increase of 23,506 over the same period last year, the provincial motor vehicle branch has reported.

Number of persons holding drivers' licences has jumped from 250,805 at the end of July last year to 274,245 this year.

TELLS OF IRELAND

Facts and figures about Ireland were presented to the Lions Club at the Empress Hotel yesterday by attractive Miss Molly Gibson, whose home is near Belfast.

North Ireland, Miss Gibson said, was an industrial area, and in her opinion was the most scenic of the two portions of the country.

She stressed that many young people of Ireland were anxious to leave the country, as there were not many opportunities in their own land.

President E. A. Estlin said all members would be called upon to help in preparations for the annual Autumn carnival, to be held at the Bay Street Armoury, late this month or early October.

NAME DELEGATES

Mr. Col. J. Nelson Gibson and Mr. Col. H. J. Spard were elected delegates to the provincial council meeting of the British Columbia Cancer Society September 14 in Vancouver at a meeting of the Victoria unit of the society Tuesday night.

Also representing the local unit will be Dr. J. L. Murray Anderson, who is a member of the provincial council.

MORE TOURISTS

Tourists are coming to British Columbia in greater numbers this year than ever before.

If they keep coming in the rate they have been for the first six months of the year, their total for 1949 will break all previous records. This was predicted recently by provincial Trade and Industry Department officials.

Conservative estimates for 1949 say the value of industry will amount to $45,000,000.

Contracts for the first seven months of this year amounted to $46,680,000, compared with $38,780,000 for the same period in 1948.

Contracts awarded during July this year were valued at $8,617,500.

An aggregate damage of about $100 was caused yesterday afternoon in a two-car collision at the intersection of Kings Road and Rose Street.

City police said a Royal Canadian Navy car driven East on Kings Road by Ordinary Seaman J. B. Downes, 330 Mason Street, was in collision with a car driven North on Rose Street by William J. Bonar, 580 Leaside Avenue. About $75 damage was caused to the naval car and $25 to the Bonar vehicle.

BOYS' CLUB WINNER

Civil Servants of B.C. Expect Wage Increase

A 7 increase in the cost of living index, announced from Ottawa yesterday, gave the Provincial Government a possible $1,000,000-wage-increase bill.

Under a verbal agreement between civil servants and the government is committed to increase wages by 10 per cent for each 12½ point rise in the cost of living index. The association has 7,000 members, but some are not members of the permanent civil service and do not come under the cost of living formula for wages. It is estimated that 1,700 civil servants in Victoria would receive the boost.

No indication came from government sources yesterday as to what action is planned.

Mr. O'Connor said representatives of the association had arranged for a meeting with Premier Byron I. Johnson and Hon. George S. Pearson, Provincial Secretary, on Tuesday to discuss the increase.

The association has 7,000 members, but some are not members of the permanent civil service and do not come under the cost of living formula for wages. It is estimated that 1,700 civil servants in Victoria would receive the boost.

Heads of the Provincial Government Employees' Association stated yesterday they expected to get the raise.

"The Government is committed to pay the increase under its own formula," said E. P. O'Connor, Vancouver secretary-manager of the association. "Our members have been waiting for this since April, 1948."

EXPECT ACTION
Said Gordon Moore, president of the Association, "We definitely expect the Government to honor our verbal agreement."

Mr. O'Connor said representatives of the association had arranged for a meeting with Premier Byron I. Johnson and Hon. George S. Pearson, Provincial Secretary, on Tuesday to discuss the increase.

Married at St. Alban's

At St. Alban's Church, on August 24, the marriage of Doreen 'Sue', daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Raybome, 1604 Pembroke Street, to Louis Welch, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Welch of Vancouver, was solemnized by Rev. F. E. M. Tomlin.

Given in marriage by her twin brother, Mr. Bill Raybome, the bride was lovely in white satin fashioned with fitted bodice, long pointed sleeves and high neck finished with collar embroidered with beads and pearls; the graceful skirt swept into a long train. Her full-length veil was arranged under a coronet of orange blossoms. A bouquet of pink and white gladioli and carnations completed the bride's costume. Mrs. W. Routhroy, wearing a full-skirted gown of blue nylon, with corsage of orange blossoms, was mistress of honor for her sister. She carried a bouquet of cream and fuchsia gladioli. The bridegroom had his brother, Mr. Bert Welch, as best man, and ushers were Mr. William Boothroyd and Mr. Allan Wilson.

During the signing of the register Miss Margery Patterson sang "O Perfect Love" accompanied by the church organist. The reception was held at the home of the bride where the parents of the newlyweds welcomed the guests with them. Gladioli and lighted white candles decorated the table which was centered with the three-tiered cake. Mr. Bert Welch proposed the toast.

Leaving for the mainland en route for a honeymoon motor trip through the interior, the bride wore a black crepe frock with hat, topcoat and accessories in grey. A corsage of pink roses and carnations. The couple will live in Victoria.

McAlister convening. Anyone having donations of clothing or other articles are asked to phone Mrs. McAlister, 94630.

CHAPTER IX

Ellen was very grave, as became an old retainer on the day of a funeral in the family circle and, without awaiting instructions, she laid out a black ensemble for Ruth to wear. Oron Foxworth was also very grave when Ruth went downstairs to join him. But his ill humor had passed, and as the day progressed, he seemed to take a subdued satisfaction in the major role he was playing. He himself ushered Ruth in for that last inevitable look at Odile which his niece had so greatly dreaded; he sat with her in her pew directly behind the one occupied by Amelie, Carrese, and Leonie at the funeral; and after the services at the cemetery were over, he assisted the weeping mother into the first car and got in beside her.

Ruth rode back to the house with some distant relative, whose mourning was almost as heavy as that worn by Mrs. Lalande. When the last of these out-of-town visitors had departed, Foxworth offered suggestions amounting to instructions as to the remaining minutes of the group.

"Leonie, you'd better take your mother and sister home and sit with them awhile. This has been a strain on them also. . . . Amelie, my dear, please go and lie down. . . . Carrese, you'd better go to your room too. . . . Ruth, the car's waiting. I'm sorry to leave you to your own devices another evening, but there's still a lot to be done here."

Neither of the first two persons thus addressed appeared to resent these directions in the least. Amelie trailed from the room, leaning upon Foxworth for support. He glanced back at Carrese.

"I haven't the least idea of going to lie down," she said, with a terseness worthy of his own. "I'm going for a walk. . . . Would you care to go with me?" she added, suddenly addressing Ruth.

"Why, yes, if you'd like to have me," Ruth replied, slightly startled by the unexpectedness of this approach.

"All right. My things are out in the hall. I'll just pick them up as we go along."

The Fashion Plate Dress Shop had certainly done extremely well by Carrese, Ruth reflected. She was far and away the smartest looking girl Ruth had seen in New Orleans. She walked rapidly down Richmond Place, her taffeta petticoat rustling pleasantly as she went, the suede handbag, which matched her suede gloves and her suede shoes, tucked securely under one graceful arm. When she reached St. Charles Avenue, she paused.

"Do you care which way we go from here?" she inquired.

"Not in the least. Besides, the main idea is to get air and exercise, isn't it?"

"It's one of the ideas. But I've a letter I'd like to show you if you don't mind. I want to ask your advice about it. I thought we could go to Audubon Park and sit on a bench. That is, if you're willing."

"Of course, I'm willing. I'd be glad to do anything you feel like."

Carrese turned right and went up-town, past the looming red brick of Loyola and grey, ivy-clad Tulane. Then they crossed the broad double roadway and the neutral ground of the avenue to the ornamental gate of Audubon Park. Presently they came to the shore of a winding little lake and found a bench. Carrese immediately opened her smart suede handbag and took from it a commercial-sized envelope.

"This came in by airmail special early this morning," she said. "It's a wonder I got it, in the midst of all the hullabaloo. But I thought it probably had something to do with the funeral and brought it straight to me. I read it while I was drinking my coffee. . . . Haas and Hector is a pretty big department lots of class."

"Yes, one of the biggest in New York. And one of the most important. Not just in size either. It's got lots of class."

"That's what I thought. All right, go ahead and read the letter, will you?"

"My dear Miss Lalande: Your tri-weekly radio program, broadcast under the auspices of The Fashion Plate Dress Shop, has been called to our attention by our representative, Miss Miriam Hickey. (To Be Continued)

Little Stories for Bedtime

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

FARMER BROWN'S BOY LOSES HIS TEMPER

It was a long time since Farmer Brown's Boy had visited the Laughing Brook, and the Smiling Pool, so of course he knew nothing about what had been going on there. One morning, having nothing else to do, he took it into his head to go over to the Smiling Pool to see how Jerry Muskrat was getting along. Jerry saw him coming and, his heart was so filled with distrust because of what he had suffered from the trapper who had so nearly caught him, that he actually suspected Farmer Brown's Boy.

"I used to think that I could trust Farmer Brown's Boy," muttered Jerry, "but I don't trust him. I don't trust anybody. As likely as not, Farmer Brown's Boy has been friendly just so that he can take advantage of it." So Jerry promptly hid where Farmer Brown's Boy could not see him, but where he could watch Farmer Brown's Boy.

The latter was whistling, a habit he has when he is feeling happy. He came straight down to the bank of the Smiling Pool and there he stood for a few minutes looking at Jerry's house. "I guess you are pretty ready for cold weather," said he, just as if he were talking to Jerry. "I've brought a couple of carrots for you and I hope you will enjoy them. You'll find them over by that favorite old log of yours."

Farmer Brown's Boy pulled a couple of carrots from his pocket and walked over to the old log which lay half in the water and half out. It was the very log where Jerry had been caught in the trap by his tail. When Farmer Brown's Boy got there he gave a little whistle of surprise. There were some pieces of carrot already there. Then Farmer Brown's Boy face clouded.

"I wonder what this means," said he, and at once began to look about. It didn't take him long to discover the trap fastened to the old log. "Ha! I thought so!" exclaimed Farmer Brown's Boy, and his face became angry looking.

He reached down and got hold of the chain of the trap and pulled it free from the log. Then he tossed it up on the bank and at once went over to another favorite feeding place of Jerry's. There, just as he expected, he found another trap. This he also threw up on the bank, and his face looked angrier than ever.

Now Farmer Brown's Boy knew all about trapping, and, what is more, he knew all about the ways of Jerry Muskrat. So he went from place to place where he thought traps might be set. He found two more, and by this time he had quite lost his temper.

"I'd like to know who it is has dared to set traps here," he grumbled. "This is on our land, and everybody knows that we don't allow trapping. I guess I'll have to go up to the Laughing Brook and see if there are more traps up there. I'll take these traps along with me and whoever owns them will have to come up to the house to get them. Then I'll give him such a good piece of my mind that he won't do any more trapping along the Laughing Brook and around the Smiling Pool."

The choice of no trump for the slam contract in today's deal was dictated by "match-point considerations," but, as it happened, South found the hand easier to play at no-trump than it would have been at a suit.

West, fearing that a spade lead would go into an opposing tenace, chose the "neutral" heart opening. Dummy's king won, and after prolonged study of the situation, South led a low diamond toward his own hand and put in the ten-spot. He felt sure that West must have considerable length in spades for his bid, since he obviously held so little in high cards, and therefore, quite aside from the fact that six missing cards (as in diamonds) do not figure to break 3-3, South decided that there was better than an even chance that East had diamond length.

When the diamond ten held, South cashed the queen, went back to dummy with a heart, and ran the diamonds, discharging two clubs and a spade from his own hand. Then he carefully cashed the spade ace before he collected the ace and queen of hearts! This was a vital preliminary to the end-play he had in mind. As he had hoped, when three cards were left in all hands, South's being the spade queen and the ace-queen of clubs, West was reduced to the spade king and the king-ten of clubs. Now, sure of his ground, South threw West in with spade, forcing the club return up to the major tenace.

Careless Driving, Siren's Sound Cost Man $45, Use of Licence

Dennis Norman King, 306 Edward Street, was fined $35 and his driver's licence suspended by Magistrate H. C. Hall in city police court yesterday when found guilty on a careless driving charge.

On a charge of unlawfully using a siren horn, King pleaded guilty and was fined $10.

Constable Deane Blackstock testified that the accused passed several cars August 27 on Esplanade Road rounding a siren. When King saw him, the constable said he changed direction and fled. He located him after a chase and took him to the station for questioning, explained Blackstock, who charged King with careless driving on Russell, Henry and Mary Streets. He added that the accused took the corners too fast.

King told the magistrate he never knew the constable was chasing him and stated he wasn't traveling any more than 25 miles an hour at any time.

REMAINED FOR TRIAL

Robert G. Gregory-Allen, 3046 Jackson Street, pleaded not guilty to a careless driving charge arising out of an accident August 29 at the intersection of Finlayson and Quadra Streets. He pleaded guilty to a charge of driving a car without insurance and not having financial responsibility himself. King is the holder of a restricted licence. He was remanded to next Wednesday for trial.

Charge of common assault against Jack M. Lewers, 1288 Vista Heights, was dismissed by the magistrate. Lewers was charged with assaulting his wife.

CHASING THE BALL

The average golfer walks eight miles during an 18-hole game.

Name Winners In Playground Competitions

Adjudged best all-round playground in the home playlot contest sponsored by the Recreation Council of Greater Victoria was that of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Emerson, 1207 Duke Street.

The playlot was described by the contest committee as possessing Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Gray, 1745 offered by the Department of Education. The plan will reduce the cost of everything a child's heart could desire from an ingenious trolley-line breeches buoy to a paddling tub. Judges were Mrs. G. W. Pottinger, president, District Council of the Parent-Teachers' Association; Mrs. J. W. Sulbury, president, James Bay P.T.A., and Emerson Smith of the Chapman Street playlot.

OTHERS, WINNERS

Other winners were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Archer, 2125 Hall Road; Mr. and Mrs. George Murdoch, 2240 Beach Drive; Mr. and Mrs. A. Slater, 1630 Oakland Avenue; Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Mitchell, 1653 Burton Street.

Borrow Books At Parksville

PARKSVILLE, Sept. 2.—With school days rapidly approaching, Parksville students are showing keen interest in the book rental plan being opened.

CHINA'S FIRST RAILWAY
Chinese railway history began in 1876 when the Woosung line was built. The plan will reduce the cost of books to a minimum. According to reports, books may be rented by Grades VII to IX for $3.50 per year, and Grades X to XII will pay $4 for the required number of books.

The only stipulation made is that books be properly taken care of. A charge will be made for any willful damage. As has been the custom in the past, books for Grades I to VI will be loaned free of charge.

c Crisp as an Autumn Morning...

Our Sharkskin Shirts

The lines of a shirtwaist blouse are crisp and distinctive... that's what makes this short-sleeved blouse an amiable companion for suits and separate skirts. So practical, too, because it's made from easy-to-wash sharkskin... styled with a long "tuck-in" convertible neckline and one pocket. In white, grey, beige and gold. Sizes 12 to 20.

Modern Science Boon To Fishing Industry

Marine News

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Sept. 2 (CP)—Sails and oars have been almost completely ousted from the fishing industry by Diesel engines, radar, echo device, radio-telephone and aircraft.

The full effect of the new devices on the fishing industry is yet to be felt, said Dr. J. L. Hart, chief biologist of the Pacific Biological Station at Nanaimo, B.C.

He noted that technological advances in fishing methods in a paper today before fishing experts at the United Nations Scientific Conference on the conservation and utilization of resources.

Highest on the list of recent improvements, he placed the high-speed Diesel engine which gives small vessels the advantages of safe fuel and ample hold and living space.

Small vessels also gained a greater feeling of security in offshore fishing through use of the radio-telephone, which also was used effectively in rounding up fishing boats whenever a large school of fish was found.

The echo-sounder served a dual purpose, he said. A safety device, it tells when the water is getting too shallow and has been used in detecting schools of cod.

Radar also increased fishing efficiency by saving navigation time. This would expand with increasing numbers of radar stations along coasts.

Hart noted that aircraft played a two-fold role in the fishing industry: They freight fish from isolated lakes of Northern Canada, and scout for tuna, whales, sardines and sharks.

CATCHING PINKS

The first large-scale venture in the catching of pink salmon at the mouth of the Strait of Juan de Fuca by Canadian fishermen is now well under way.

Gordon Barrie, local representative for the Federal Department of Fisheries, said yesterday there are at least 60 British Columbia vessels in the area, and they are all making "fair" catches. There are also about 60 American vessels there.

Practically all the fish are being taken directly to canneries, at Stranville and Vancouver by packers.

There was also a large fishing fleet operating in Johnstone Strait, in the Alert Bay area.

READY FOR REGATTA

At least 25 vessels of the Royal Victoria Yacht Club will take part in the annual Cowichan Bay regatta to be held tomorrow. They will include lightnings, stars, comets, auxiliary cruisers and power boats. Maple Bay and Genoa Bay will be the official registration points for vessels planning to compete in the regatta, and vessels will rendezvous at these points tonight. Vessels from all over the British Columbia coastline and the Puget Sound area are expected to be present.

Feature race on the Sunday program will be that of auxiliary cruisers competing for the Sir Thomas Lipton perpetual trophy. This award, put up annually by the Royal Victoria Yacht Club, is now held by George Miller, of the Corinthian Yacht Club of Seattle.

Vessels of the Victoria yachting fraternity taking part in tomorrow's regatta will be headed by Commodore Dr. R. J. Wilde's trim Cherie.

NEW APPOINTMENT

Appointment of Norman J. MacMillan as vice-president and general counsel of Canadian National West Indies Steamships Ltd., was announced by R. C. Vaughan, chairman and president.

A native of Ontario, Mr. MacMillan started service with the Canadian National system in 1937 as a solicitor in the law department at Winnipeg. In 1943 he was named assistant general solicitor at Montreal, and on June 1 of 1945 was appointed general counsel with jurisdiction over the law department of the system.

WINNER HONORED

A display honoring George A. Patton, who won the recent international predicted log race between Olympia, Washington, and Juneau, Alaska, has been placed in the window of the Victoria Tug Company, 606 Humboldt Street.

Displayed are pictures of Mr. Patton, his yacht and crew, pictures of the race in progress, and the handsome trophy won by the well-known Victorian.

New Welding Unit for Island

Above is shown portion of new "union melt" welding unit recently built at Bay Street plant of Victoria Machinery Depot Co. Ltd. Welding machine is only one of its kind on Vancouver Island, and can operate "in almost any direction." Designed and built by personnel of shipyard, its first job was welding of sections of 80-foot steel gas storage tanks being built for B.C. Electric. Tanks are eight feet in diameter. Seen with "working end" of welding unit are Eddy Allen, in tank section, and Sam Pasacreta. Mr. Allen is in charge of "union melt" operations.

A contest to estimate the correct weight of the suite was featured at the "Bay" during August. The correct weight was 233 pounds. Mrs. Palmer was one ounce light. Her winning estimate being 233 pounds, 1 ounce.

Helicopter Seeks Plane Long Lost

Search for a United States Navy Neptune aircraft, which is believed to have crashed November 4 last year in the Port Alberni area, has been resumed by the R.C.A.F.

This was confirmed yesterday by officials at R.C.A.F. No. 12 Group headquarters in Vancouver.

An R.C.A.F. helicopter has been flying over the area during the past two days.

ONE OF FIVE

Air force officials said that the search was being re-opened in the hope that receding snows in the Port Alberni mountains might disclose signs of the aircraft.

The aircraft was one of a group of five returning to the U.S. air station at Whitty Island last November 4.

It was believed to have been forced down by ice.

An exhaustive joint search by U.S. and Canadian air force officials failed to disclose any traces of the missing plane last winter.

May Not Accept C.S.U. Withdrawal

VANCOUVER, Sept. 2 (CP)—Burt Showler, local president of the Trades and Labor Congress, said today the T.L.C. may not accept the voluntary withdrawal of the Leftist Canadian Seamen's Union.

"Until the T.L.C. convention in Calgary September 15, it is impossible to say if the Congress will accept the withdrawal, or if the executive recommendation for expulsion will go on," said Showler.
